

Immunometabolic load is the least burden-entangled axis

General burden (G) is orthogonal to every specific axis by construction; among the correlated specifics the immunometabolic axis carries the smallest coupling (mean $|\Phi| \approx 0.035$) — biology $\perp$ G.